THE YEAR OF GLENN GOULD

SEPTEMBER 2007—SEPTEMBER 2008

Celebrating the 75th Anniversary of Glenn Gould's Birth and Marking the 25th Anniversary of his Death

Toronto (October 20, 2006)—The Glenn Gould Foundation is pleased to announce the upcoming launch of "Year of Glenn Gould" (September 2007–September 2008) with exciting events in Toronto and Ottawa, Ontario.

- The year-long Gould extravaganza will begin with Sincerely, Glenn Gould, the largest-ever exhibition about Glenn Gould, to be held at the Canadian Museum of Civilization, Ottawa, Ontario (September 27, 2007—September 1, 2008).
- In conjunction with the exhibition, the Glenn Gould Foundation will hold the 3rd Glenn Gould Gathering, Ahead of Our Time? Glenn Gould and the Future of Music (September 27–30, 2007), a conference at the Canadian Museum of Civilization, Ottawa, Ontario.
- In February 2008, the Glenn Gould Foundation will announce the winners of the prestigious Glenn Gould Prize and the City of Toronto Glenn Gould Protégé Prize. Previous Glenn Gould Laureates include such illustrious names as Yehudi Menuhin, Oscar Peterson, Yo-Yo Ma, Pierre Boulez, and, Sir André Previn. The hand-picked Protégés chosen by the Laureates include the highly talented Benny Green, Tan Dun, Wu Man, Jean-Guihen Queyras, and Roman Patkoló.
- This extraordinary celebration of Glenn Gould will culminate in September 2008 with the Glenn Gould Prize Gala Concert, featuring performances by both the 2008 Glenn Gould Laureate and the City of Toronto Glenn Gould Protégé.

Many other international and local events to celebrate the music and ideas of this legendary musician, communicator, and thinker are currently underway. Details on all these events, as well as late-breaking developments in the Year of Glenn Gould, will be posted on the Glenn Gould Foundation's web site,
